

College of Education

Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Graduate Teaching Assistant Position

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction in the College of Education is seeking a knowledgeable and enthusiastic graduate student to join our team.

Available for 20 hours weekly, 9 months position. Compensation includes bi-weekly salary, eligible for group health insurance, and tuition for up to 10 credit hours.

Qualifications

Required: Graduate student in good standing; two years teaching experience in K-12 American schools, excellent oral and written English language skills; experience in complex library research and writing literature reviews for research papers or grant proposals; technical skills in a Mac environment; outstanding work ethic and collaboration skills.

Expectations

Graduate Teaching Assistants in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction typically teach undergraduate courses for pre-service teachers and/or supervise practicum students and interns in placements in area schools.

Application Process

Please submit a letter of application addressing the above qualifications, a current resume, and a brief sample of your writing to Shelley Houser shouser@ksu.edu. On-line applications are preferred. This position will remain open until filled.

Department of Curriculum and Instruction
Kansas State University, College of Education
261 Bluemont Hall, 1114 Mid-Campus Drive North
Manhattan, KS 66506
Phone: 785-532-5904